Speaker: Albert Burnham

Albert served on staff at New Life as a counselor and Adventure Camp leader from 2003–2007 while earning degrees in Parks and Recreation Management and Philosophy. Today, he lives in Unalaska/Dutch Harbor, Alaska, where he serves as a bivocational pastor at Unalaska Reformed Church a small Southern Baptist–affiliated congregation started by several families with a desire to see a healthy, gospel-centered church established on the island. He works as the local Recreation Manager. Albert and his wife, Kristen, homeschool their four children.

Retreat Theme: In a world full of distractions and competing voices, many believers have lost sight of the vital role of the local church. Through biblical teaching and practical encouragement, Albert will challenge men to take ownership of their responsibility to lead, serve, and strengthen healthy, gospel-centered churches—for the good of their families, their communities, and the glory of Christ.
